Krishnan,

We will not be withdrawing our subpoena to Mr. Ishimaru, and we disagree with your position that the subpoena is “ineffective.” Mr. Ishimaru was transacting business when he was served with the subpoena, and the place of compliance is within 100 miles of where he was transacting business. If Mr. Ishimaru would prefer to be deposed somewhere else, then we are willing to be flexible on the place of compliance. We note that Mr. Ishimaru attends meetings at the Albany Nanotech Complex on at least a quarterly basis. If he would prefer to be deposed in Albany, then we can depose him there on a date that is convenient to both parties.

Best,
Corey

Clem / Corey -

I apologize if I missed your response. Please confirm whether GlobalFoundries is withdrawing its subpoena to Mr. Ishimaru.

Thanks,
-KP

Subject: GlobalFoundries-IBM: Attempted Service on Kazunari Ishimaru

Counsel -

We understand that GlobalFoundries has attempted to serve a subpoena on Kazunari Ishimaru at a conference in Hawaii. That subpoena calls for compliance in Hawaii, but that is not within 100 miles of where Mr. Ishimaru "resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person," and is therefore ineffective. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(c)(1)(A).

Please withdraw the subpoena. Otherwise, Rapidus will move to quash and for a protective order.

Thanks,

KP
